RIBA Stirling Prize Dinner 2008

Recognised as the most prestigious award for contemporary British architecture, the RIBA Stirling Prize in association with The Architects' Journal will be announced at the dinner and broadcast the following evening in a Channel 4 programme presented by Kevin McCloud.

The six RIBA special awards are also announced and presented to the architects of winning schemes at the event. Join RIBA Award winning architects, clients and industry guests and be the first to find out who has won.

Tickets are £200 excl VAT each (£235 incl VAT), layout arranged for 10 guests per table. The price includes drinks at the reception and wine during dinner; a cash bar will be open after dinner. Also included is a ticket to attend the major international exhibition, Le Corbusier - the Art of Architecture in the Lutyens Crypt at the Metropolitan Cathedral Liverpool during the weekend of the event.

Book your tickets or table early to avoid disappointment.
