

RIBA North West Study Tour 2009

Panopticons

Thursday 13 August 2009

RIBA North West is delighted to announce a Study Tour of the “Panopticons”, taking place on Thursday 13th August and led by Nick Hunt, Director of Mid Pennine Arts.

The Panopticons, through an RIBA International competition, invited artists, architects and designers to submit ideas for the creation of a series of large-scale permanent structures, or Panopticons, on high-point sites across the rural countryside of Pennine Lancashire.

This tour will take in three of these structures, Atom, Halo, and the RIBA Award winning Singing Ringing Tree.

Forget about the burdens of practice (at least for a day!) and take the opportunity to visit these landmark pieces of public art, learn more about the Panopticons and have an enjoyable day with fellow professionals.

Thanks to sponsorship from Moneypenny we are able to offer this event to members free of charge. This includes coach travel, lunch and guided tour. The coach will make three pick-ups so we will ensure that there is a suitable and convenient place for you to join the tour. The first pick-up will be at 8.30am and will return by 6pm at the latest.

Places are strictly limited, and will be allocated on a first come basis. In order to reserve your place please complete the booking form attached and return by fax, email or post. We are unable to accept bookings without a completed form.
