Employment Law Update

Do you know your rights as an employer or employee? What changes are taking place within UK employment law? What procedures should be followed when dealing with grievance or disciplinary issues or when considering restructuring?

This vital employment law update will focus on a number of key issues, including:

- changes to UK Employment Law coming into effect in April 2009
- changing terms and conditions of employment
- disciplinary issues
- discrimination update
- grievances
- redundancy and consultation
- restructuring

Speaker

Monica Atwal, Partner, Clarkslegal LLP

Monica is an employment law specialist. Monica joined Clarkslegal in 1995 and became a partner in 2003. She graduated from Brunel University with a 2:1 LLB honours degree and a distinction in her legal practice course.

Monica has substantial experience of managing high volumes of employment tribunals, both in conventional claims and recently in defending over 900 claims presented after a major industrial dispute.

She is an experienced advocate and regularly provides training to clients so they can implement best practice and avoid claims. She has also acted for a number of senior directors, including Chief Executives, in negotiations.

This event qualifies for 3 hours CPD. RIBA members are required to complete 35 hours of CPD per year. 19.5 hours should come from the Core Curriculum. Within this, it is compulsory to study 2 hours in health and safety matters.
