Running A Small Practice & Developing a Business Plan

This seminar will look at running a practice and establishing a strategic development plan over one/three/five years. The event is aimed at architects who have recently set up in practice or who are looking to do so in the near future. This event would also be of interest to those planning growth of an existing practice.

The seminar will cover the following:

- Types of formation - sole trader, partnership, limited liability partnership or limited company
- Marketing and getting work
- Employing staff; resources and equipment
- Budget and finances; legislation
- Resourcing and outsourcing
- External advisers and sources of help
- Bringing in new partners
- Managing growth and succession planning

Speaker

Chris Askew, Architectural Consultancy

A former Partner and Practice Manager at Feilden Clegg Bradley, Chris has wide ranging experience in architectural management. He is a Part 3 examiner at Birmingham UCE, Plymouth and Cardiff, and runs his own architectural consultancy in Bristol, combining architectural projects with providing strategic advice for other practices.

This event qualifies for 3 hours CPD. RIBA members are required to complete 35 hours of CPD per year. 19.5 hours should come from the Core Curriculum. Within this, it is compulsory to study 2 hours in health and safety matters.
