Planning in the Historic Environment

This seminar will cover the new PPS (in the consultation phase as of August 2009) as well as:

- The definition of 'heritage asset' and how to research historic significance
- What to do to ensure your application for heritage consent is validated quickly
- Energy efficiency and the historic environment – does the planning system have a valid role?
- Re-use of redundant buildings – is the planning system poor at recognising reasonable proposals?
- Accessibility in the historic environment – has the planning system struck the right balance?
- The economic situation: how best to argue 'enabling development'.

Speakers

Philip Waddy RIBA FRSA and Geoff Huntingford BSc (Hons) MA MRTPI IHBC, West Waddy ADP

Philip Waddy has over 20 years experience as a Partner or Principal in private practice. Experienced at steering complex developments through to completion, he has particular abilities in the role of project management. Philip is a member of the RIBA National Planning Group and is Chair of RIBA South.

Geoff Huntingford, Conservation Planner at West Waddy ADP, has considerable local authority experience in respect of listed buildings and conservation area work, including grants, design guidance, character appraisals and enhancements. Geoff advises the architectural and planning team at West Waddy ADP on conservation and historic building issues.

A local Conservation Officer will also be present at this seminar. They will give a brief public sector view of the issues and participate in the question and answer session.

This event qualifies for 3 hours of CPD.

RIBA members are required to complete 35 hours of CPD per year. 19.5 hours should come from the Core Curriculum. Within this, it is compulsory to study 2 hours in health and safety matters.
