ARCHITECTURE IN WALES EXHIBITION
National Eisteddfod of Wales, Cardiff and District, 2 - 9 August 2008

Eisteddfod
GENEDLAETHOL CYMRU

 RSAW

An exhibition of recent architecture in Wales is to be held at the National Eisteddfod of Wales, Cardiff and District 2008 in conjunction with the Royal Society of Architects in Wales

Exhibition entries are invited from architects, or groups of architects, for buildings whose practical date of completion was in the period 1 January 2005 to 14 March 2008.

Successful entries for inclusion in the exhibition will also be considered for the two following prestigious awards:

The Gold Medal for Architecture

(Alwyn Lloyd Memorial Medal)

A silver-gilt replica of the original gold medal will be awarded to the architect or architects responsible for a building, or group of buildings, completed between 1 January 2005 and 14 March 2008 and recommended to the Eisteddfod as being of greatest merit.

Plaque of Merit

To honour smaller projects of a high standard of design.

Architects are invited to submit either newly built or refurbished projects that satisfy the following criteria:

- constructed in Wales
- the project final account is not to exceed £750,000
- the project should have been completed between 1 January 2005 and 14 March 2008
- the project should enhance the environment

Exhibition selected by Cindy Harris (Design Commission for Wales) and Richard Weston (Welsh School of Architecture, Cardiff University) and will be displayed by means of digital projection.
