Birmingham Architectural Association's 2009 Lecture Series

DIVE Architects

6pm Thursday 26th February 2009

Old Joint Stock Theatre, Temple Row West, Birmingham.

DIVE architects was formed by Andy Nettleton from the UK and Ia Hjarre from Sweden. Their partnership combines personalities, experience, enthusiasm and commitment.

The practice's design principles are to provide a strong architectural approach combining conceptual clarity with a large element of playfulness.

"We want our work to make people smile. We want our work to be personal..."

... Our desire is to make architecture accessible and to build good quality buildings."
