

RIBA Honorary Fellowships 2010 nominations

The RIBA is calling for nominations for Honorary Fellows for 2010.

Within the terms and spirit of the Charter and in accordance with the bylaws, to recommend to Council men and women of merit who have made an outstanding contribution to the quality of architecture, the achievement of the profession and the purposes of the Institute. Any person who is not an architect may be elected as an Honorary Fellow.

Nominations must be made by an RIBA member and be supported by the relevant material, which may include: a biography, statement from nominator, a list of any relevant monographs or articles, images etc. You may wish to contact a member of the Honours Committee to request they support your nomination. If so, please email the Awards Administrator (address below) for contact details. It is not essential to have the agreement of the nominee, and nominations are not made public. A full list of existing Honorary Fellows is attached.

All nominations must be received in the Awards Office, 66 Portland Place, London W1B 1AD by Friday 12 June 2009.

Honours Committee 2010:

TBC

Nominations will be announced at RIBA Council on 6 October 2009.
Fellowships will be presented at a formal dinner in London in February 2010.
